

Great Oaks Weekly

Friday 21st March 2025

Some pictures from this year's comic relief – it was lots of fun, some great dressing up, lots of custard pies, red nose biscuits, sponsored sports and even Mr Bean put in an appearance at Assembly!
Thanks for all the donations - totals next week

Pathway 1 celebrate colour

Pathway 1 pupils put on a great show this week on the theme of colour. There were lots of musical instruments played, songs sung, dances performed and ribbons waved. Parents will get to view highlights from the concert later in the year.

Humanities visit

4MP took a trip to Furzey Gardens. They explored the gardens, found fairy houses and played hide and seek in the playground. The students had a lovely day.

Furzey Gardens is free for individuals with learning needs and a carer.

3EK's Café Project

As part of their 'Cafe food' topic this term in Cooking, 3EK have been making waffles, using our assisted language boards to communicate their choice of toppings! Whipped cream was certainly a favourite!

College Residential

The College students have had a fantastic week at Avon Tyrell Activity Centre this week. Full reports next week

Attendance

This week Attendance for the school was 91.33%. Attendance for the college was 86.36%.

Well done to the 266 Students who achieved 100% Attendance this week. With just two weeks to go until our Special Easter Attendance Raffle, every day in school counts to maximise the chances students have to win!
